CLIMATIC CURES.
The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Heartless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

SO DECEPTIVE.

Many Frankfort People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing. Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Cures every kidney ailment from backache to diabetes.

Here's a Frankfort case to prove it:

Mrs. Lou Johnson, widow, of 325 Todd street, says: "Off and on for a good many years, I have suffered with a heavy, dull aching pain over the kidneys and across the small of my back, the pain running up my back becoming very severe on the least exertion. There was also a weakness of the kidneys which procured an irregular, scalding and excessive condition. I was treated by doctors, and it seemed as though medicine did not act on me. My condition became so serious that I realized the necessity of some immediate relief. About this time a neighbor spoke so highly of Doan's Kidney Pills that I could not believe but that they had some merit. My daughter procured a box for me at J. W. Gayle's drug store, and after giving the remedy a good fair trial, I can now confidently give my good recommendation and endorsement of what I consider a grand kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly carry out the claims made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Franklin County Sunday-School Association met with the Bethel Baptist Church, at 10 o'clock a. m., Thursday, July 7. Was called to order by the President, E. R. Jones. The devotional exercises were conducted by State Visitor Theodore C. Gebauer, and the song service by E. R. Jones, and the scripture reading the 23d Psalm, Prayer by S. E. Hutton.

In the absence of the Secretary, Dr. U. V. Williams was elected secretary pro tem. Owing to the absence of several speakers from the regular program, the order was changed.

Miss Nannie Lee Frazier, of Louisville, made a most beautiful address on primary teaching and methods, which was most excellent, offering many new suggestions and methods that will be of immense benefit to teachers. It was by all present warmly commended and appreciated. So very attractive a speaker, at such a meeting of the subject in hand as Miss Frazier possesses, should be utilized by putting her in the State field for all her time at a most remunerative salary. That subject is her life work.

Mr. C. C. Todd, to whom was assigned the subject, "Manhood's Morning," being absent, the number was filled by Rev. Wm. Crowe, who made a telling presentation of the subject, in his usual and inimitable manner, after which a poll of the association was had, and following schools responded: First Baptist Sunday-school, Frankfort; First Presbyterian, Frankfort; Leestown Mission; Swallowfield Baptist; North Benson Baptist; Southern Presbyterian, Frankfort; Mt. Pleasant Baptist; Bethel Baptist; Mt. Carmel Baptist; Providence Baptist; Switzer Baptist, 12. Two presidents, five superintendents, eighteen teachers, one hundred and fifty-four in the house, and about half as many more outside.

President appointed Committee on Nomination of officers—O. L. Powers, Grant Smithers, Wellington Lee and R. K. McClure. Committee on Resolutions—W. Crowe, Dr. J. M. Williams and J. M. Sullivan.

After song, adjourned for dinner, which was most elegantly served, delicious in quality, abundant in quantity, and with an open-handed hospitality characteristic of the community.

1:15 p. m. Business resumed by song service and prayer by J. H. Martin, of Benson Church.

S. E. Hutton, first speaker on "Qualifications for Successful Teachers." A most excellent address, truthful, forceful and eloquent.

The State Sunday-school Association was then presented by Visitor T. C. Gebauer, who covered the field, giving statistics, work and progress of the State Association. Collection and pledges for the maintenance of same, amounting to $42.50 was then taken up.

The subject of "Missions" was discussed by Rev. O. L. Powers in a very convincing and acceptable manner, and in words that burned and can not fail to bring forth good results.

Miss Frazier made closing address, which ended the most enjoyable and profitable meeting ever held in the county.

Committee of Nominations made their report, which was adopted, viz.: E. R. Jones, President; Mrs. M. B. R. Day, Secretary; Vice-Presidents—S. E. Hutton, Frankfort; R. C. Hleant, Peck's Mill; J. H. Martin, Benson; Harry Shaw, Forks Elkhorn; J. D. Parker, Evergreen (Elkhorn); Supt. Home Department—S. E. Hutton.

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report, which was adopted by a rising vote, viz.:

1st. This convention declares its continued allegiance with the Kentucky Sunday-school Association and heartily endorse and accept the co-operation of that body.

2d. This Convention instructs the County Executive Committee to arrange for a similar gathering next year at such place and time as they may find best.

3d. This Convention desires to thank the members of the Church for the use of their house of worship for this occasion, to express their appreciation of the abundant hospitality that we have enjoyed and to thank the superintendent and teachers of this Sunday-school for their attention, which has done so much to make this Convention a marked success.

4th. This Convention earnestly suggests that, so far as may be practicable, the plans and ideas brought out at this day's work be put in practice in the various schools of the county, so that next year we may have the result of these experiments and practical suggestions.

Adjourned after song, "Glad Re With You Till We Meet Again," and benediction by Rev. Wm. Crowe.

E. R. JONES, President.

(For the Roundabout.)
SABBATH KEEPING v. SABBATH BREAKING.

To discuss this all important subject from its physiological exegesis—teaching three pertinent truths—illustrating intelligently the spiritual phases of this commandment—one must be in touch with divine interpretation, looking through the eyes of the inner understanding. "One who slowly developed the root moral qualities that blossomed into the higher spiritualities."

Honoring the Sabbath and keeping it holy should be considered as blinding to-day as when the "Thou Shalt" was given to Moses from Mt. Sinai. As when the day was hallowed in the peaceful dawn of time, and God himself observed the command resting from the labor of the sixth day's work.

It is a sign of heathenry—the keeping of the Sabbath—regard his promise in keeping it and the day was made especially for man and not man for the Sabbath. So far this reason the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath day—Mark 2:27-28.

"If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath from doing thy pleasure on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable, and shalt honor him, not doing thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words. Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob, thy father—for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." Isaiah 58:13.

This promise of reward brightens the darkness of our age and condition—"as a light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day"—bringing to our spiritual vision a history of home influence upon individual happiness, cultured civilization in general, and proving conclusively how the froside, with the rich affections of the mother and father heart, have colored man's destiny, his industry, his art, his education, morals and religious principles.

To-day our home is the chief American institution, the family a unit of civilization, exceeding in power and influence all other institutions.

tutions taken together and yet public life, politics, cares and responsibilities and the deceitfulness of riches, absorbs so much that the private home life starves and dies. Irreverence and vulgarity have soiled the beautiful garments of the Christian Sabbath as the night equaled each man and paint upon the statues of commemorative heroes, or the ribaldry, profanity and vulgarity of foul tongues the faith of our forefathers.

This question of keeping or breaking the Sabbath is of individual import—from the spiritual antitheses, as well as moral influence, exerted world wide and as consecutive as conscience. Individual thought license is also responsible in great measure, and the waves of agnosticism have made hearthens of civilized mentality.

Were you taught to revere the Sabbath and keep it holy? Then you will not desecrate it by playing "base ball" or "going fishing," because, forsooth, you were kept behind the counter or at the plowshare six days of the week. The seventh day belongs to God. He demands that you rest, and if you use His day for your work you are as guilty of theft as if you broke into the house of your neighbor and stole his purse.

You may make more money by using the Sabbath for your pleasure, but your gold will be cancer-eaten and your children's children paupers. You may enjoy the delights of personal freedom in physical culture and athletics, but your old age will be despondent and your patience threadbare. You may deny the existence of God, ridicule immortality and refuse to consider as obligatory the commands of Sinai, but you will be held responsible in the day of judgment, as you would be in the eyes of the law of to-day. If you refused to become a peaceful citizen and broke one of the statutes of this great Commonwealth. Rest means absence of motion, repose—peace, personal, is selfish, and, viewing it from our standpoint, in this connection, is altogether foreign from the use God intended us how to observe the Sabbath.

God, our Father, never intended to interfere with the happiness of any one of his creatures, nor that we should keep His holy day with iron rule or puritanic exactness, but He did intend and does insist that we keep the Sabbath spiritually, resting mentally, and recuperating physically. The reward is sure, it is the inheritance of riches and honor. What more could man desire?

OFFICIAL CHANGES IN THE SEVENTH DISTRICT INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.

Collector Roberts officially announced on Thursday morning the changes in the Seventh District Internal Revenue office resulting from the resignation of Chief Deputy Charles H. Berryman to take the position of general manager of Mr. Haggin's Elmendorf Farm, which went into effect with the close of Thursday's business and the end of the fiscal year of the United States Government.

Mr. Berryman has been Chief Deputy Collector for nearly seven years and has come to be regarded as one of the very best Internal Revenue officials in the country, the Seventh district being in the first rank in point of administrative method, accuracy of detail and financial discipline. He retires with the hearty good will of all the men in the service and Collector Roberts feels a sense of personal loss in his resignation.

Harry R. McDowd, cashier for upward of two years, has been advanced to the chief deputyship, for the duties of which he is well fitted and with which he has become more or less familiar under Mr. Berryman's guidance. He was appointed to the Internal Revenue Service from the Civil Service eligible list, in February 1898, as a clerk and afterwards advanced to division deputy and assessment deputy under the Spanish war revenue law before his appointment as cashier. He was a citizen of Clark county when first appointed to the service and is highly regarded in the Ninth and Tenth districts, where he has a wide Republican connection.

Theodore M. Shaw, who has been what is known as a "distiller's deputy" for most of Collector Roberts' term, and held the same desk under Collector McDowell, has been promoted to the cashiership, a post he held temporarily some years ago, and with which he is familiar in every detail. He is an expert accountant, keeps a beautiful set of records and is an ideal man for this important position. He was originally appointed from the Civil Service eligible list.

Clarence G. McAllister, who has been a "bonded account" deputy for a year and a half, is advanced to the "distiller's deputy" created by Mr. Shaw, a position in which his training as a lawyer will be of assistance in the preparation and examination of important papers. Mr. McAllister was formerly County Attorney of Bath county and succeeded to the office of the veteran of the Internal Revenue service, having served under Collectors Swore, Stoll, Goodhue, and Roberts, has been advanced from the position of clerk of records and supplies to the "bonded account" desk, which is held most acceptably during a large part of the McDowell administration. He is also a Civil Service appointee and one of the most capable officials in the Seventh district.

Samuel H. Crostwalt, who has been on occasional duty as storekeeper under Civil Service Rule 6, has been appointed to the position vacated by Mr. Sharpe. He has been in the service who will be glad to know of his deserved promotion in the service.

G. T. Clark has been appointed storekeeper in place of Crostwalt, and is assigned to duty in July as general storekeeper, a traveling assignment. He held a cashier position of responsibility under Collector McDowell and is well versed in Internal Revenue matters.

Every one of these appointments is a promotion, and carries with it an advance of salary, except that of Mr. Clark, who is a new appointee.

The Internal Revenue officials of the Seventh District will meet at the Collector's office at 8 o'clock next Saturday night to pay their respects and take leave of the retiring chief deputy, Mr. Berryman.

FRANKFORT, JULY 9, 1904

FOURTH OF JULY.

Biggest Observance of the National Birthday Held In Many Years.

Monday last was the 4th of July and opened out in a way that none could complain of. It was an ideal day up to about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Very early in the morning the people from the surrounding counties and towns commenced pouring into the city until there were not less than 10,000 strangers present. Every train that came in was crowded with passengers, eager to take part in the old-fashioned celebration of the Nation's birthday that had been arranged for.

At the appointed time the marshals formed the procession which marched the assigned route headed by the Frankfort Band, which furnished delightful music. At the stand, which had been erected in the State House yard, immediately in front of the steps to the Capitol building, the ceremonies were opened by an invocation of the Divine blessing by Rev. Father Thos. S. Maler.

Read Admiral Chapman Coleman Todd, in behalf of the officers of the battleship "Kentucky," then presented the "cheer coming flag" of that vessel to the governor in a short and appropriate address. Governor Beckham accepted the flag, in behalf of the State in a brief and appropriate speech.

The special speech of the occasion was made by Mr. Jas. J. Fitzgerald, of Louisville. In a well prepared, eloquent and stirring address, that showed that "Old Jimmie" was deserving of his reputation as an orator.

Owing to pressing engagements in New York City, Judge Wm. Lindsay, who was expected to be present and address the people, was unable to be here, which was a source of universal regret.

At the conclusion of the speech-making, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. J. Nugent, and the crowd betook themselves to the rear of the State buildings, where delicious, old-fashioned Kentucky burgoo was served to everybody who applied. There was an abundance of that toothsome article, which makes one feel that life is not a vain thing after all.

Mr. David Kirkpatrick certainly established his reputation as a burgo connector that will cause Mr. Gus Jambert to look to his laurels. In the afternoon a beautiful game of baseball was played at Cove Spring Park.

At the hour for the daylight fireworks, a light rain was falling, but, notwithstanding this, the management proceeded with their work, and made it a decided success. In the evening the flotilla of yachts and other river craft were very prettily decorated and illuminated, making a fine show. The fireworks were beautiful and brilliant beyond anything which had been seen here in recent years, and the whole program was successfully gone through with notwithstanding another downpour of rain which temporarily scattered the crowds of sightseers.

It has been in my long years since the 4th of July has been so generally and agreeably observed. There was a gratifying absence of disorder of any kind, and those having the celebration in hand are to be congratulated upon the great success which rewarded their efforts.

Jaws

Tightly Locked From Nervous Spasms.

Physicians Could Not Prevent Fits.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured My Wife.

Dr. Miles' Nervine has been successfully tried in thousands of cases of nervous disorders, but never has made a better record than when used in the treatment of fits or spasms. Thousands of testimonial letters prove this, and in nearly every instance the writer has stated that the fits ceased after the first dose of Nervine was given. The statement is repeated in the following:

Seven years ago my wife commenced having spasms of the face and I called in my home physician and he said she was paralyzed. I rubbed her with salt water and gave her calomel and she eventually got some better, but in a short time she had another attack. She was confined to her bed for three months and the doctor could not help her. She had fits frequently, some times very severe. Her hands would clasp so we could not open them and she finally got so her jaws would become locked. Finally I saw the doctor was doing her no good and ordered a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. She received so much benefit from the first bottle that I got some more. She has taken a number of bottles but has never had a fit since taking the first dose. She also thinks very highly of Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and is never without them. If there is any way of making this testimonial stronger do so because of the good the Dr. Miles Restorative Nervine did my wife.—WM. V. ALLEN, P. M., Elkhart, Miss.

BAD ACCIDENT.

While driving along the Versailles pike, near the colored cemetery, on Tuesday, the vehicle occupied by Mrs. Thos. H. Hinde, was run into and upset by a buggy driven by a man by the name of Roberts, Mrs. Hinde and Mrs. Phillips (French governess in the Hinde family), were thrown violently to the ground. Mrs. Hinde's shoulder, hip and head were badly injured and she is now in a hospital, unconscious by the fall. The physician in charge was fearful of internal injuries also.

Mrs. Phillips was considerably bruised and furred, but not so seriously as Mrs. Hinde.

Both ladies were taken into the residence of Mr. Henry Cunningham, the sexton of the cemetery, and necessary surgical attention rendered.

Later on both ladies were taken to the summer home of Mrs. Hinde, near the Forks of Elkhorn.

The ladies were doing as well as could be expected at last accounts.

The winner of the first prize was Mr. James Hughes Snyder, representative of Georgetown College.

The first prize was $50 in gold and the second was $25 in gold.

Mr. Collins is to be congratulated upon his success.

BLUE GRASS BEAUTY MAGAZINE.

We are in receipt of the first number of the Blue Grass Beauty Magazine, which is published by Messrs. Pilecher & Taylor, at Lexington, Ky., and edited by Mr. Louis Pilecher, who, if the initial number is a fair sample, wields a facile and ready pen.

It is beautifully gotten up and printed. If it is kept up to the sample as first issued it will prove a first-class magazine. Its literary merit is far above the ordinary monthly.

It is issued at the low price of $1.00 per annum or 10 cents per copy. Send and get a copy and you will be sure to want more of it.

BITTEN BY DOG.

As Mr. Jas. W. Hughes, Jr., was coming down town from his home at "Edgewood," on Wednesday, a dog ran out into the pike and bit him on the leg. Mr. Hughes got a gun and killed the animal.

Surgical attention was rendered and the wound dressed.

DEATH OF JUDGE JOSEPH H. LEWIS.

On Wednesday last the sad news was received in this city announcing the sudden death of Judge Joseph H. Lewis, at his home near Duval station, in Scott county, aged about 80 years.

Judge Lewis was born and reared in Barren county, Ky. He was a man of fine ability and uprightness of character and life. In his early life he represented Barren county in the Legislature, having as his colleague, Hon. Jas. P. Bates—Col. Bates a Democrat.

At the outbreak of the Civil war, Judge Lewis entered the Confederate Army as a Colonel of the regiment recruited by him, and distinguished himself by his bravery. When the strife ceased Judge Lewis was a Brigadier General, in command of the famous Orphan Brigade.

He was elected to Congress from his District as a Democrat and served several terms as such. Later he was elected Judge of the Court of Appeals, and served two terms—sixteen years.

After his retirement from the bench he practiced law in this city for a short time and then removed to his farm in Scott county to reside, giving his whole attention to that and the farm of his wife, lying side by side, near the Great Crossings.

He made an upright and fearless judge, and all who knew him respected him for his integrity of character.

He was twice married, his last wife (who survives him), being the widow of Col. Jilison P. Johnson.

He leaves several children and grand children, the issue of his first marriage.

Judge Lewis was a member of the Catholic church.

The remains were taken to Barren county for interment.

FIGHT JUST THE SAME AS MEXICAN MAN.

On Tuesday night, Wab Lee and Sam Lee, two gentlemen from the land of Confucius, engaged in a fight, at the Chinese Laundry, on Ann street, with knives. They were carving each other in scientific style when some persons interfered and put a stop to the fun.

They were both pretty well used up by cuts about their faces and heads. They were arrested and taken before Judge Herndon, who assessed a fine of $7.50 against Wab Lee. He paid his fine.

Sau Lee quickly shook the dust of our city from his elogs and was not tried.

DEATH OF MR. R. LEE SUTER.

Mr. R. Lee Suter, member of the Board of Public Safety, of Louisville, was shot and killed at a so-called fishing camp, on the Ohio river above that city, on Sunday morning. It is claimed that one Vaughan, a youth 16 years of age, who was out in a carriage with a party of disreputable men and women, fired the shot which killed Mr. Suter. It is also said that he was lying on a cot in a tent asleep at the time the shot was fired.

Since the killing all sorts of rumors are afloat, involving several men and women in the affair. The authorities have closed the case with a very cursory examination.

Mr. Suter's father and mother reside in this city.

He was a very bright and shrewd young man, working his way up from very humble surroundings, to a position of power and influence in the Democratic party, by his own unaided exertions.

He had many and grave faults which are buried with him. His virtues should live after him. He was a loving and devoted son, brother, husband and father.

The funeral was largely attended by the local officials and citizens of Louisville. The interment was in Cave Hill cemetery on Tuesday.

Gen. D. W. BULLARY.

On Monday night a daring burglar gained admission to the clothing house of Messrs. Crutcher & Simpson, by putting a ladder up to the rear window, climbing up and raising the window of the dressing room, on the second floor.

When once inside the thief proceeded to help himself to a complete outfit from tip to toe, including underwear, socks, shirt, shoes etc.

The fellow seemed to be very choice, as he tried on other pants beside those he wore off, and other garments were scattered about.

He left the clothing discarded by him at the foot of the stairway, leading to the second floor.

The firm do not think the fellow took away anything other than the suit he had on, but, of course, are not sure.

The matter was carefully planned, as the ladder was carried around to the rear of the stores of Mr. C. W. Saffell and Mr. F. G. Stagg and through the alleyway to the place used.

We hope the police will obtain a clew and work it out successfully, as these things are getting too numerous to be comfortable.

RUNAWAY AND SMASH UP.

The horse attached to the delivery wagon of Mr. Victor Laughlin became frightened at a passing automobile, on Saturday morning, and dashed up St. Clair street, until it reached the front of Mr. C. H. Mandeville's barber shop, when the horse veered to the pavement and ran the vehicle against the barber pole of Mr. Mandeville, where the horse fell down and the vehicle smashed to kindling wood. The frightened animal was caught. The barber pole was bent but otherwise uninjured.

THE THIRST OF A LANCE

Is scarcely more agonizing than the recurrent pains in the abdomen which follow the eating of improper food or too free indulgence in ice water. A PERFECT GEM.

The address delivered by Miss Annie Lee Frazer, of Louisville, State Superintendent of Primary Sunday-school Work, before a fine audience of Sunday-school teachers and workers in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church, on Wednesday evening, was short, but full of thrilling and instructive thought. It was a perfect gem. We wish every parent and teacher in the Sunday-schools of the city had been present. They would have been aroused to more earnest and faithful work for the Master.

You can easily satisfy yourself that this is so, and that you will obtain perfect satisfaction in every detail.

The reputation we have established for good work and fair dealing under the firm name of the Seller Carriage Co., founded by our Mr. Yeoman and the late Henry Humber, Esq., in 1876, we shall fully maintain in the several departments of carriage building. Our repair and repainting departments are fully equipped, and we wish to say to our friends, should they favor us with their business, they are assured of getting the best work possible. We have our own rooms, a complete stock of factory-made vehicles; also a nice line of our own make of its equal, splendid quality. We are prepared to build to order any style of pleasure vehicles.

IN MEMORIAM

Of my cousin, Mrs. Senhroula Moore, who died June 25, 1904, aged 25 years.

She has been a devoted member of the Christian Church, at Antioch, for five years; has been married but a short while.

She leaves a husband, father, mother, three sisters, four brothers, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn the loss of this good and estimable Christian lady.

Our loved cousin has gone, has passed from the cares of earth to the joys of Heaven. Calmly she sleeps beneath the cold sod, hands folded, sweetly smiling, even in death. How can we give thee up? But thy will, Oh God, be done. We have strewn the grave with flowers, watered them with tears. Soon, alas! they will fade, but in our hearts thy name and form will ever live.

Farewell, sweet be thy rest, dearest cousin, and when death comes may it find us, too, resigned and in that bright beyond will clasped glad hands, to part no more.

Dearest, loved cousin, we have laid thee

In the peaceful grave's embrace, But thy memory will be cherished, Till we see thy lovely face.

We miss thy kind and loving hand, Thy fond and honest care. Our home is dark without thee—We miss thee everywhere.

One by one our hopes grow brighter As we near the shining shore, For we know we cross the river, Waits the loved cousin gone before.

Farewell, farewell, dear Sophronia, a long, long, farewell.

M. S.
POPULAR OFFICIAL HAND-
SOMELY REMEMBERED.

In recognition of his uniform courtesy and efficiency as Chief Deputy for the Seventh Internal Revenue District, Mr. Charles H. Berryman, who received that position to become general manager of Elmendorf, the magnificent estate of Mr. James B. Haggin, was presented with a handsome solid silver table set by his associates in that service on Saturday night.

The presentation took place in the office of Collector Roberts, in the Government building, in the presence of about fifty revenue men, who had gathered to express regret that Mr. Berryman had resigned from the service and congratulated him on his good fortune on being appointed to so responsible a position.

The table set consisted of seven handsome pieces—an epergne of crystal and silver, a Sheffield tray, two solid metal planters and four silver candelabra. These pieces were attractively arranged on a large desk in the Collector's private office, the epergne being filled with flowers and the candelabra with lighted candles.

The presentation speech was read by Mr. John T. Gunn, a veteran in the revenue service and President of the Storekeepers and Gangway Association of the Seventh District.

In reply Mr. Berryman made a most speech of thanks, expressing regret that his new field of labor could find him from such friends as his associates, proved themselves to be. He thanked them both for the testimonial and the remembrance.

Among those present at the presentation were: Collector S. J. Roberts, Deputy Collector H. R. McEldowney, Postmaster E. C. Eakin, T. M. Shaw, D. D. Willis, W. F. Crogan, J. T. Gunn, J. B. Milward, T. L. McConnell, A. A. Eastin, G. T. Seacrest, D. C. Berryman, John M. Stevenson, J. Phelps, W. S. Lyle, C. H. Morgan, C. N. Ward, F. C. Sparks, C. G. McAlister, W. G. Dunlap, Andrew G. Leonard, W. D. GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the great-est of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists. —L.Y.
